THE CHARLEROI MAIL

VOLUME XXI—NO. 235. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1921. 2 CENTS.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES OF CHARLEROI TO BE INCORPORATED

Application will be Made to Common Pleas Court on 4th of April

TO DO MORE EFFECTIVE WORK

Notice has been filed by Guy Moffitt Esq., that an application will be made in the Court of Common Pleas of Washington county, on Monday, April 4, 1921, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the charter of an intended corporation to be known as "The Associated Charities" of Charleroi, the character and object of which is a general charitable undertaking, including the relief of poverty, rendering assistance to those in needy circumstances, and the care of foundlings and homeless children, and for these privileges to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges conferred by the act of assembly and its supplements thereto.

The Associated Charities has a charter list of members composed of Dr. J. W. Hunter, John B. Schafer, W. M Darby George W. Risbeck, J. W Manon, Lee Showers, J. D. Berryman, David M. McCloskey, E. W. Hastings, Thomas L. Pollock, Guy Moffitt, W. B. Pfleghardt, H. A. Heupel, Kerfoot W. Daly, R. H. Rush, W. D. Pollock, L. P. Flickinger, Jr., E. E. Piper, Walter A. Urben and S. L. Woodward.

Of this number seven have been chosen as Directors to put the corporation in working order, namely: Dr. J. W. Hunter, W. M. Darby, George W. Risbeck, J. D. Berryman, W. D. Pollock, L. P. Flickinger, Jr., and Walter A. Urben.

The Associated Charaties of Charroi had its inception in 1909, at which time W. M. Darby interested Jesse Johnston in a move to take care of the needy of the community, by which some systematic method could be made effective wherein those seeking assistance could have their immediate wants taken care of in a practical way. In 1911 a system of distribution was put into effect and has been working in a satisfactory manner ever since. However, the work of the Association has so increased of late that it was deemed advisable to place it upon a more enduring basis, which resulted in a decision to have it incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth, and steps to that end are now under way. With a corporation the Association will be self-perpetuating and the work can be carried on by the board of directors and officers in, what the promoters believe, a more satisfactory manner.

As soon as the charter is granted, which is expected to be early in [illegible] the incorporators will meet and approve of the board of directors, who will immediately organize by selecting the officers to have charge of the various departments of the undertaking.

Marriage licenses was issued in Pittsburgh on Thursday to Edward S. Michener of Charleroi and Pearl Best, of Wilkinsburg.

HEAR SUIT AGAINST RAILROAD COMPANY

On Tuesday in common pleas court at Washington, there was taken up the suit of the Walkerton Co-Operative Association of Walkertown, near California, against the Pennsylvania Railroad company. It is a claim for the loss of a truck, wrecked when struck by a train at the Phillipsburg crossing. In this case the jury was challenged before Judge McIlvaine and the case was taken up before Judge Brownson.

MONESSEN MILLS WILL RESUME MONDAY NEXT

While not official, it is reported that the Pittsburgh Steel company plant at Monessen, which has been idle for several weeks, will resume on Monday, giving employment to approximately about 6,000 men in Monessen and vicinity.

On Monday three more open hearth furnaces will be placed in blast, while other departments of the mill will resume on possibly a 45 or 50 per cent basis. Within the next thirty days it is anticipated that the mill will be operating on a 75 per cent basis.

COLONIALS TRIM MONESSEN FIVE

The Charleroi Colonials defeated the fast Monessen Independents last night on the H. T. A. C. floor in one of the best games seen on the home floor this season. Burtinet was the star for Monessen, playing his usual stellar game. The Colonials took the lead from the start, and kept it throughout the game. Weaver, the Colonial's guard, turned his ankle and had to be taken out of the game. The next attraction at the H. T. A. C. will be the Donora Independents, the only team to defeat the Colonials this season, and a fast game is looked for. A large turnout of Colonial fans is looked for. Score and line-up:

ASSEMBLY WILL VOTE ON SUNDAY BASE BALL

The Sunday baseball "local option" bill was taken from the House calendar on Thrusday and sent to the municipal corporations committee for a hearing. The bill, which was presented by Mr. McCann of Allegheny county, authorizes municipalities to hold elections whether they will permit Sunday baseball.

Directors and Committees Hold Important Meetings

A very lively session of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. There was business of much importance and the Board was in session two hours and one half. Upon the recommendation of Mr. Carson, chairman of the Committee on Committees, Mr. Walter Byerly, president of the Chamber appointed the following persons to constitute a committee on membership: General chairman, J B Trissing, sub-chairman, Harry E. Price, H. C. Terbush, R. V. Golden, W. M. Darby, W. S. Sweeney. This sub-committee will in turn each choose a committee of five which will make a total sub-committee of twenty-five. The entire membership, approximating five hundred members, will be divided among this committee of twenty-five. The committee on membership has a two-fold object; first to retain and hold the present membership; second, to call a meeting of the sub-committee chairman at a very early date.

It was thought desirable to hold a banquet about the first week in April in the High School gymnasium. The Board of Directors felt that we ought to have at least five hundred persons in attendance at this banquet, and that the price would be about two dollars and a half a plate. Excellent music, vocal and instrumental would be furnished, and we would have at least two speakers, probably of national reputation.

As this is the time when Daylight Saving is again being considered, this matter came up before the Board for consideration. It was thought that it might be well to hold a referendum on this subject, but that since this matter will be voted upon next Monday at Harrisburg, the time will not permit such a referendum to be taken. A bill will be presented early in the session of the next Congress to legalize Daylight-Saving in the nineteen states of the eastern time belt. The Pennsylvania state Chamber of Commerce recently got an expression from Chambers of Commerce and agricultural organizations for and against the bill before Congress legalizes the moving forward of clocks one hour in the whole eastern time zone. The results show a wide variance of opinion on the merits of daylight-saving with those in favor of it concentrating entirely in the larger cities, and industrial centers, while the smaller towns and country communities are unanimously opposed to it because of the real injustice it perpetrates against the farmers..

Mr. Byerly appointed a women's committee of five as follows: Mrs. F. C Stahlman, chairman, Mrs. C. J. Vogan, Mrs. C. C. Wright, Mrs. Pauline Pfleghardt, and Mrs. J. D. Berryman.

Mr. J. W. Berryman and Mr. Anfindsen came before the Board representing the Charleroi Iron Works They requested that the chamber take some action to encourage their works The Board warmed up to their proposition and felt that they ought to do something toward encouraging this local industry, and that just as soon as the present financial depression has somewhat abated, that they may be able to lend some help to this worthy industry; although just what form this help will take has not been decided.

The Housing Committee met last evening at eight o'clock. The entire committee, consisting of Bruce K. Barnett, chairman, Chas. S. Bateman, T. D. Williamson, Frank C. Miller, and George Newton, were present. A partial survey has been made of the city in regard to vacant lots. Four hundred fourteen vacant lots were discovered in Charleroi, excluding the Lincoln avenue extension, besides some vacant houses and hotels that might be fitted up for living quarters. The committee decided to submit three types of model houses to competitive bidding. These houses will probably contain four or five, and six rooms. The Macbeth-Evans Class company owns nineteen houses in Charleroi. The Electric Alloy Steel Co., is handicapped because there are not sufficient houses for its employes. Mr. Morrison of that plant is quite insistant that something be done to relieve the housing situation at once. The Charleroi Iron Works will soon increase its working force from twenty-five to seventy five employes. The question arises where will those employees live. The interests of this borough are most vitally interested in a proper solution of the housing problem. The more skilled the labor, the better the house required. If North Charleroi and Speers were annexed to Charleroi, this would give more available space for building houses. The Housing Committee will hold its next meeting on Thursday evening, March 24th, and in the meantime would be glad to hear suggestions from all public spirited citizens.

I. B. Nixon of East Pike Run Twp. Brings Suit to Compel Agreement

COMPENSATION FOR SERVICES

I. B. Nixon, of East Pike Run township, has filed a suit against Thomas and Jacob Elliott, executors of the estate of the late Thomas Lilley, former wealthy coal operator of near California, to recover the sum of $50,000, representing the present market value of 50 shares of stock of the Lilley Coal and Coke company. These shares the plaintiff avers, Thomas Lilley, who was the principal stockholder of the company, had agreed to convey to him, but at the time of his death had failed to do so.

It is declared by the plaintiff that by an agreement entered into with Thomas Lilley on May 6, 1911, it was provided that the plaintiff was to assist Thomas Lilley in the incorporation of a company to operate the coal controlled by Mr. Lilley. In consideration of the work to be done by the plaintiff, it is averred, Thomas Lilley agreed to deliver to the plaintiff 50 shares of the capital stock of the proposed corporation.

The company was incorporated on July 8, 1911. The plaintiff avers that pursuant to the agreement entered into with Mr. Lilley he acted as incorporator in the incorporation of this company, and subsequent thereto as an officer attended the corporate meetings of the company, actrd as presiding officer at the majority of these meetings, and as an officer assisted in the management of the affairs of the corporation until the same was duly organized. In all things he avers, he fully carried out the terms of the agreement entered into with Mr. Lilley.

The plaintiff avers that after the incorporation he continued to act as an officer thereof and as such aided and assisted in the management of the affairs of the company up until the date of the death of Mr. Lilley. He avers that Mr. Lilley, up to the time of his death continued to express his willingness to turn over to the plaintiff as agreed, 50 shares of the capital stock of the company. He renewed this promise, he says, several times.

Notwithstanding these promises Mr. Nixon declares Mr. Lilley failed to make the transfer prior to his death. A demand has been made on the executors for the carrying out of this alleged agreement, but it is charged the executors have refused to make the transfer of stock asked.

How They Have Been Endured and How Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Experience of a Providence Woman

Providence, R. I.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a female trouble and backache. It began just after my baby was born, and I did the best I could about getting my work done, but I had awful bearing-down pains so I could not stand on my feet. I read in the papers about Lydia E. An Illinois woman relates her experience:

Bloomington, Ill.—"I was never very strong and female trouble kept me so weak I had no interest in my housework. I had such a backache I could not cook a meal or sweep a room without raging with pain. Rubbing my back with alcohol sometimes eased the pain for a few hours, but did not stop it. I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and six bottles of it have made me as strong and healthy as any woman; and I give my thanks to it for my health."—Mrs. J. A. McQUITTY, 610 W. Walnut St., Bloomington, Ill.

The conditions described by Mrs. Cassen, Mrs. Ball, and Mrs. McQuitty will appeal to many women who struggle on with their daily tasks in just such conditions—in fact, it is said that the tragedy in the lives of some women is almost beyond belief. Day in and day out they slave in their homes for their families—and beside the daily routine of housework, often make clothes for themselves and for their children, or work in their gardens, all the while suffering from those awful bearing-down pains, backache, headaches, nervousness, the blues, and troubles which sap the very foundation of life until there comes a time when nature gives out and an operation seems inevitable. If such women would profit by the experience of these three women, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the natural restorative for such conditions it may save them years of suffering and unhappiness.

There is hardly a neighborhood in any town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman does not reside who has been restored to health by this famous medicine. Therefore ask your neighbor, and you will find in a great many cases that at some time or other she, too, has been benefited by taking it, and will recommend it to you. For more than forty years this old-fashioned root and herb medicine hasbeen restoring suffering women to health and strength.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

WHAT THEY HAVE DONE.

What the railroads have accomplished in the matter of increased efficiency will stand out as one of the finest chapters in the history of American railroading. Confronted, as they were, by most discouraging conditions when the railroads were returned to private ownership last March, it required real American enterprise to meet the conditions and conquer them. Unquestionably there was a let-down in morale during the Government operation that extended from the executives clear down to the humblest employe. This has been fully recovered and there has been an increase in freight movement, so that the additional car mileage has been the quivalent of adding several hundred thousand new cars without the outlay of additional capital. It is certainly up to shippers to do their part in co-operating with the railroads.

The Judiciary Committee of the United States Senate seeks light on the question as to whether anyone in a place of authority and responsibility has intimated a willingness to have the inter-allied war debts cancelled. As the United States is interested to the extent of about $10,000,000,000, those "who pay the freight" are strongly inclined to back the inquiry.

A large consignment of structural iron has been received at the government boat yard, North Charleroi, from which gates for the various locks on the river will be fabricated.

QUEER CUSTOMS OF AFGHANS

People Eat Only With the Right Hand —Animal Life of Every Description Held Sacred.

The average Afghan has no particular fondness for wine or spirits.

Tobacco raised in the land is of inferior quality; the better sorts are imported from Persia, Russia, India and Egypt. Amir Habbibullah Khan always had a good private stock of Havana cigars. Both young and old people take snuff.

Tea, sweetened and unsweetened, is the favorite drink and is consumed in prodigious quantities. When you go to see an Afghan, you can hardly escape before swallowing four or five cups of tea; it is, therefore, no trifling gastronomic feat to pay several visits in one afternoon, the more so if he polite host (with a view of honoring the European guests) has the tea served in big Russian glasses.

The right hand is always used in eating and drinking, the left hand being considered unclean.

Dogs, though numerous and useful, are looked upon as unclean, and pious people never touch them.

Animals that go badly lame on the march or camels that get snowbound in the mountain passes are abandoned to their fate. Afghans never kill such animals, as we might do, to put them out of their misery. They believe that the lives of all living things are in the hands of Allah, and that man sins if he presumes to interfere with the Supreme Will. Afghans will not even kill fleas or other vermin; they merely pick them off and throw them away!—Frederick Simpich and "Haji Mirza Hursein" in the National Geographic Magazine.

Diplomatic Youngster.

Harold was often allowed to visit his grandmother, but was always told the hour he should return home. On arriving at his grandmother's one morning he was asked how long he could stay. "Well, grandmother, I don't remember whether mother said ten o'clock or three o'clock, but I'll go home after dinner and ask her."

No Fox; No Fables.

Foxes have figured in the fables of every race of men on earth since the dawn of history, writes Dr. R. W. Shufeldt in the American Forestry Magazine. Take what the fox did out of the fables of Aesop and other writers of fables and their work would be robbed of four-fifths their interest.

Satisfaction or Money Refunded.

A new bathing suit invented by an official of the royal army clothing department is claimed to make drowning impossible. But should this bathing suit fail to save any person from drowning he can call at the office and have his money back.—London Punch.

History of Pawnbroking.

The Roman emperors used to lend money upon land, and various systems of lending money by means of pledges followed. The business of pawnbroking was regulated in England in 1756, and licenses were issued in 1773.

Ten Centuries of Records.

The oldest registers in England are said to be in Tripton, Staffordshire, Eng., which also has a church 1,000 years old. The town is considering the question of applying for a charter of incorporation.

Giving the Effect.

A real light is rarely hidden under the proverbial bushel, but some keen men keep a bushel to create the belief that it conceals a light.—Albany Journal.

Japanese "Insect Bell."

A natural curiosity of Japan is the "insect bell." It is a black beetle which emits harmonious sounds like those of a little silver bell.

Weak Eyes and Wisdom.

Fair promises are like horn-rimmed spectacles. They don't amount to much unless there is something back of them.

STREETS ONLY BY COURTESY

Roadways in European Cities Unpaved and Filthy Up to Comparatively Few Years Ago.

The oldest pavement of which there is [illegible] was that of Sidon, which was paved with [illegible] the Moors in the [illegible] the ninth century. Some [illegible] think the origin [illegible] but [illegible] have been [illegible] The Moors [illegible] to be occupied to [illegible] by [illegible] pipes.

Paris was the first city to pave its streets, but this civic betterment did not take place until the year 1184, on which occasion an historian says, "the face of the city was changed from that which it had been previously under on account of its filthiness."

These old streets must have been very bad indeed, as it was the general practice of the citizens to keep swine, which roamed at large and wallowed in the mire of the public ways.

The streets of London were unpaved in the eleventh century, and it is uncertain just when the work did begin. Holborn was not paved until 1417, though it was frequently impassable from the depth of its mud.

Even Chaucer's streets went without even a clearing or cleaning until the middle of the seventeenth century, and until 1861 it was a popular practice to place pig pens immediately beneath the front windows of the houses.

Every kind of filth and dirt was thrown into the streets of Warsaw up to the comparatively recent year of 1823.—Stray Stories.

HOLDS PROPERTY IN TRUST

Man Enjoying What Is Known as Usufruct Has Benefits and Responsibilities Under Law.

Our word usufruct is derived from two Latin words usus, use, and fructus, fruit. The Latins combined them into usufructus, the equivalent of our word usufruct, which is a term of law, especially of the Roman law and of those systems based on Roman law. Usufruct is the right of enjoying things belonging to another, and of drawing from them all the profit and advantage they will produce without destroying or wasting their substance. One title of the civil code of the province of Quebec deals with usufruct. This right may be established by law or by the will of man. A simple example would be this: A person wills the ownership of a farm to a son, but the usufruct to a brother for his lifetime. The brother enters at once upon the enjoyment of his usufruct and is called the usufructuary. He cultivates the farm and takes the revenue, subject to the obligation of making ordinary repairs. He must use the property as a prudent, industrious man would do, without impairing the capital. The usufruct of stocks would consist of the enjoyment of the dividends, or of a sum of money the usufruct would consist of the interest earned thereon.—Montreal Herald.

Lettuce and Conversation.

Lettuce to me is a most interesting study. It is like conversation: it must be fresh and crisp, so sparkling that one scarcely notice the bitter in it. Like most talkers lettuce is apt to run [illegible] to seed. Lettuce is that kind of [illegible] to talk to, and so [illegible] like a few people I know, growing more serious and at the same time white in the center and more crisp. Lettuce, like conversation, requires a good deal of oil, to avoid friction, and keep the [illegible] smooth; a pinch of salt, a dash of pepper, a bit of mustard and vinegar, but so mixed there will be no sharp contrasts.

I feel that I am with the best society when I am with lettuce. It is in the select circle of vegetables.—Charles Dudley Warner.

The American Short Story.

The secret of the American short story is the treatment of characteristic American life, with absolute knowledge of its peculiarities and sympathy with its methods; with no fastidious ignoring of its habitual expression, or the inchoate poetry that may be found hidden even in its slang; with no moral determination except that which may be the legitimate outcome of the story itself; with no more elimination than may be necessary for the artistic conception, and never from the fear of the fetish of conventionalism. Of such is the American short story of today, the germ of American literature to come.—Bret Harte, "The Rise of the Short Story."

Is Wednesday Your Birthday?

People born on Wednesday (Mercury's day) will never make great fortunes, but will hold high positions, probably as judges. It will be a struggle till after middle life with them, and then a comfortable position. They are in danger of at some time losing their liberty, and their marriage may prove unhappy. They would make good orators, philosophers, doctors, astrologers, counterfeiters and vagabonds. They will be subject to heart disease, gout and nervousness, are not likely to live much over fifty years. They will marry three times, and have several children.

Substitute for Travel.

"Do you find the movies instructive?"

"Decidedly," said the regular patron. "By paying close attention to the films I know almost as much about Montmartre as some of the people who've been there."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

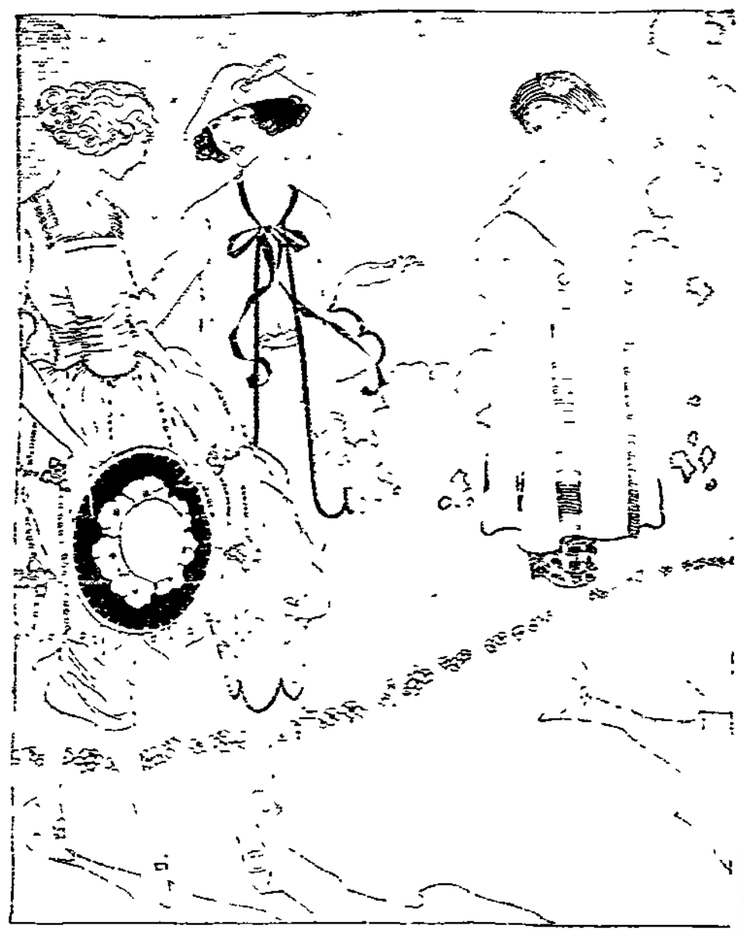
NEW EASTER FROCKS



Spring Frocks Refreshingly Individual

After winter the crispness of a new Taffeta Frock, the soft rippling folds of a Canton Crepe, or the verve of a Slavic embroidered cloth model, inspire feminine interest in Frocks in general. Styles are widely divergent, varying from the Spanish silhoutte of snug bodice and voluminous skirts to the graceful slim lines of long waisted moyen age styles The Directoire influence is being felt also There is great use of grey, copenhagen, red and rust tones on navy, and the effect in both embroideries and toniques is strikingly effective.

LEAGUE SCHEDULE ALMOST FINISHED

The last half of the Elks' bowling season will come to a close this evening, when the Champs and the Wahoos will clash for the premier honors in the second division of the schedule. These two teams are tied for first place, and it is safe to say there will be some game. The winner of the contest tonight will meet the Packers, who won the honors in the first half of the season. The final game will likely be scheduled for next week, and will be a hummer. The score of last night's game was as follows:
